| Web front end |
| Mobile |
| Embedded |
| Other Clients |

→ Power BI Back End cluster

Web front-end Cluster (WFE)

The WFE cluster provides the user's to browser with the initial HTML page contents on site load.

3) Explain Back End cluster from power BI Service, Architecture?

Ans → The power BI back end cluster is backbone of all the functionality available in Power BI. It consists of several service end points consumed by web front end and API clients as well as background working services, databases, caches and various other components.

Power BI Back End cluster.

| Azure Storage | Azure Cache | Azure SQL | Service Bus | Azure Key Vault |

API management

Back end services

Gateway Service